ALBERT LEGATT
ARCHBISHOP OF SAINT-BONIFACE

*REMINDER* Video - Archbishop LeGatt's 2024 Easter Message

In his 2024 Easter message, Archbishop Albert reflects on the relentless and never-ending hope born out of the cross and resurrection of Christ. Indeed, the temptation to despair may be all too strong upon learning about various tragedies befalling our world, both globally, and locally.

Yet, in this Easter tide, Archbishop Albert implores us to reflect and deeply pray on what hope can mean for us today. How can we incarnate hope, concretely, for the world around us? What is joy brought to others, and what is peace for the hearts of all? We all have a part to play, together, comprising one body, invaluable members of the body of Christ.

He is risen, Truly, he is risen indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

*REMINDER* The Walk for Life - Sunday, June 2, 2024

Life Culture's annual Walk for Life (KR Barkman Park, 515 Main St., Steinbach) is a celebration of life and Manitoba's largest pro-life walk! We invite you to join us at 1 pm for a BBQ. Walk begins at 2 pm. This event is a tangible way to show love to single moms.

A great way your church can get involved is by collecting baby items and gift cards during the month of May, then bring them to the walk on June 2nd.

People brought so many items last year that we were able to share what we received with other organizations in Steinbach and Winnipeg. What an incredible way to live a pro-life ethic! Another way to get involved is for pastors to preach a life-affirming message the day of the walk, then encourage your congregation to attend the walk. Just as a reminder, the walk is not a protest, but rather is a way to celebrate and affirm the inherent value of life. *NEW* Nuns, Everyday Heroines – CAN Canada's Magazine

The first edition of ACN Canada's Magazine for 2024 is now available! Entitled Nuns, Everyday Heroines, the issue features short portraits of the extraordinary work carried out by nuns around the world. "The word heroines is absolutely fitting," says Marie-Claude Lalonde, national director of Aid to the Church in Need Canada. Through four short stories, we are able to raise awareness of some of the difficult situations nuns go through around the world," explains the national director. "Examples of these include kidnappings and violence they have endured, but we also highlight the work they do with migrants, as well as the ongoing training they receive to always remain up-to-date on theology and human sciences."

Women of the Gospel, in all circumstances

Sister Gloria is a Colombian nun and former missionary in Mali. It was in this Sahel country that she was abducted on February 7, 2017. She would only be freed close to four years later, on October 9, 2021. "This Franciscan Sister of Mary Immaculate nun became a friend of ACN," Lalonde recounts. "Like everyone else, we were moved by her story.

When she signed the preface to our report on religious freedom, she revealed to us her poignant experience," she says. In this spring's issue of the Magazine, we share excerpts from an interview she gave in which she tells us about her abduction: "Yet, despite these adverse circumstances, the bad weather, the daily abuse, the humiliations, the deprivation of food and water, I have never—not once—failed to thank God for allowing me to wake up and be alive in the midst of all these difficulties and dangers: how could I fail to praise You, bless You, and thank You, my God? For You have filled me with peace in the face of insults and abuse!" The nun also confided: "I also prayed—and I continue to pray—for my abductors."

Another heroic testimony is that of the nuns who, in the town of Necoclí on the northwestern tip of Colombia, welcome far more migrants than tourists. "Welcoming migrants is one of the important points of Pope Francis' pontificate," says Lalonde. "On their journey in search of a better life, thousands of people find comfort in the unconditional welcome of nuns from at least three congregations. They feed them, listen to them, pray with them, and above all, they are a final smile, a last comfort before the crossing of Central America and Mexico—which we can imagine is very difficult—, most of them hoping to reach the United States. These nuns are responding magnificently to the Gospel's call to welcome the stranger," says Lalonde.

"Finally, in these times of conflict, war, and polarization at every turn, I would like to emphasize that, in the face of violence, these nuns work without armours or guns to make the world a better place. They are an inspiration to us all! Please support them with your prayers and donations."

The Magazine can be viewed or downloaded directly from the Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) Canada website at <https://acn-canada.org/magazine/>. For more information, please call 1-800-585-6333, ext. 224 or write to com@acn-canada.org

Stewardship

April 21, 2024 - 4th Sunday of Easter

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice."

- JOHN 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants from his Steward? How do you listen for His response? Many times, Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

St. Boniface Cathedral was full to bursting on March 26 as Bishop Albert LeGatt presided at the Chrism Mass. Parishioners from all over the diocese turned out, despite the inclement weather, to collect the holy oils blessed by our archbishop. The focus of the celebration was on the young adults of the diocese, and many young parents, accompanied by their little ones, answered the call. The Chrism Mass was also an opportunity for the priests present at the celebration to renew their priestly vows. The Mass was also an opportunity to mark the anniversaries of ordination of many of our priests. Congratulations to: Robert Campeau, Maurice Jeanneau and Edmond Paradis, omi (60 years), Antoine Vo Van Hoa (50 years) and Bishop Noël Delaquis who celebrates 50 years of the episcopate, Gerry Moore and William Palacios, pss (45 years), Marcel Carrière (40 years), Phil Daley and Mudishi Kazadi (35 years), Chrysogonus Agu, Gregory Mulligan, ofm (25 years), Augustine Ezediniru, SMMM (20 years) and Jose Montepeque (15 years). Returning your old Holy Oil Bottles...

Thank you to all parishes, religious communities, and care homes who sent representatives to the Chrism Mass for new holy oils (Oil of the Sick, Oil of Catechumens, and Holy Chrism) and who returned their old bottles to the Archdiocese. If you still have old oils, please send them to us, because we reuse the bottles each year to save costs. Leftover holy oil should never be disposed of in the trash or down the drain. It should be either burned or poured out into blessed earth such as a cemetery. Bottles should be returned to the reception at the Archdiocesan Centre, located at 151, avenue de la Cathédrale.
