ALBERT LEGATT
ARCHBISHOP OF SAINT-BONIFACE

REMINDER* Video - Archbishop LeGatt's 2024 Easter Message

In his 2024 Easter message, Archbishop Albert reflects on the relentless and never-ending hope born out of the cross and resurrection of Christ. Indeed, the temptation to despair may be all too strong upon learning about various tragedies befalling our world, both globally, and locally.

Yet, in this Easter tide, Archbishop Albert implores us to reflect and deeply pray on what hope can mean for us today. How can we incarnate hope, concretely, for the world around us? What is joy brought to others, and what is peace for the hearts of all? We all have a part to play, together, comprising one body, invaluable members of the body of Christ.

He is risen, Truly, he is risen indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

REMINDER* Photo gallery of the 2024 Chrism Mass

St. Boniface Cathedral was full to bursting on March 26 as Bishop Albert LeGatt presided at the Chrism Mass. Parishioners from all over the diocese turned out, despite the inclement weather, to collect the holy oils blessed by our archbishop. The focus of the celebration was on the young adults of the diocese, and many young parents, accompanied by their little ones, answered the call. The Chrism Mass was also an opportunity for the priests present at the celebration to renew their priestly vows. The Mass was also an opportunity to mark the anniversaries of ordination of many of our priests. Congratulations to: Robert Campeau, Maurice Jeanneau and Edmond Paradis, omi (60 years), Antoine Vo Van Hoa (50 years) and Bishop Noël Delaquis who celebrates 50 years of the episcopate, Gerry

Moore and William Palacios, pss (45 years), Marcel Carrière (40 years), Phil Daley and Mudishi Kazadi (35 years), Chrysogonus Agu, Gregory Mulligan, ofm (25 years), Augustine Ezediniru, SMMM (20 years) and Jose Montepeque (15 years). Many thanks to Jan Oliver Borce for his beautiful photos. To see the photo gallery, click here

REMINDER* Returning your old Holy Oil Bottles...

Thank you to all parishes, religious communities, and care homes who sent representatives to the Chrism Mass for new holy oils (Oil of the Sick, Oil of Catechumens, and Holy Chrism) and who returned their old bottles to the Archdiocese. If you still have old oils, please send them to us, because we reuse the bottles each year to save costs. Leftover holy oil should never be disposed of in the trash or down the drain. It should be either burned or poured out into blessed earth such as a cemetery. Bottles should be returned to the reception at the Archdiocesan Centre, located at 151, avenue de la Cathédrale.

REMINDER* Deacons of Manitoba Newsletter – March, 2024

The latest Deacons newsletter contains Archbishop LeGatt's reflections on Easter, and the Light which is stronger than the darkness of death. He invites us to look for signs of the glory and joy that the light of the Resurrection brings. As well, we invite you to discover the Easter reflection by Father Dominic Yuen, of St. Anthony of Padua Parish, as well as Carol Mackenzie-Gruber on the passing of Deacons Wayne Johnson and Lawrence Wakaruk, both of the Archdiocese of St. Boniface. There is also a photo of the Year Two Permanent Diaconate Candidates, who participated in a Spirit-led retreat in March. NEW* The Walk for Life - Sunday, June 2, 2024

Life Culture's annual Walk for Life (KR Barkman Park, 515 Main St., Steinbach) is a celebration of life and Manitoba's largest pro-life walk! We invite you to join us at 1 pm for a BBQ. Walk begins at 2 pm. This event is a tangible way to show love to single moms.

A great way your church can get involved is by collecting baby items and gift cards during the month of May, then bring them to the walk on June 2nd.

People brought so many items last year that we were able to share what we received with other organizations in Steinbach and Winnipeg. What an incredible way to live a pro-life ethic! Another way to get involved is for pastors to preach a life-affirming message the day of the walk, then encourage your congregation to attend the walk. Just as a reminder, the walk is not a protest, but rather is a way to celebrate and affirm the inherent value of life. Stewardship

April 14, 2024 - 3rd Sunday of Easter

“Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ But they were startled and frightened...” - LUKE 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to “see the face of Jesus” in others and to “be the face of Jesus” to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide “peace” to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a “God-centered” life of Stewardship and not a “self-centered” life.

4 Seasons of Reconciliation

4 Seasons of Reconciliation Online Course Available!

Knowing more about Indigenous realities, both past and present is a vital step in entering into meaningful and just relationships with the Indigenous, thus ensuring our future together will be one where justice and the dignity of all are truly lived out. To help Catholics in our diocese, the Archdiocese of St. Boniface is offering the faithful the opportunity to take the 4 Seasons of Reconciliation online course. This course, developed by Productions Cazabon in collaboration with the First Nations University in Regina and the Oblate Fathers, allows individuals to watch compelling videos and read testimonials and other material about the history, challenges and hopes of the Indigenous in Canada, touching on many of the calls to action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. All told, the course takes about three hours to complete, but anyone can do it at their own pace. The Archdiocese has licensed sixty slots, available on a first come, first serve basis.
