ARCHBISHOP Albert LeGatt ARCHDIOCESE OF SAINT BOMFACE

Dear faithful of the Archdiocese of Saint Boniface,

Over the last two years of the pandemic, we have had to limit the number of Church activities and gatherings in accordance with public health restrictions, but we are pleased to finally be able to slowly resume in-person gatherings. We are feeling a spirit of renewal, and are experiencing a new awakening within our communities, our families, and within each of us. It is an awakening in our faith lives, in our personal lives with Christ, but it is also an awakening to the ways we can be Church together.

This awakening is enriched by what we have learned during the pandemic, such as the importance of building deep and intimate relationships with others. Sacraments and faith formation are essential, but it is also important for us to gather with each other. As a community, we can share our faith, the joys and challenges of our daily lives, and ask our big life questions. We are spiritually nourished when these moments are intertwined with prayer and friendship. It our Archdiocese. is an awakening to the true presence, heart and soul, of the other person the person of Christ and the person in front of us with whom we are building a relationship.

This way of living out Church, which we are promoting in every parish of our diocese through our Pastoral Services, will lead us to continual growth and faith sharing.

Our pastors are also experiencing an awakening. Thanks to the current direction of seminarian formation and the ongoing formation of priests, our clergy recognize more deeply that the call to be a pastor in these times demands that they be men at the service of the Word of God, just as much as the Eucharist. This ministry includes them sharing the Word with the faithful, both on a personal level and through teachings. Thus, the primary objective of the Good Shepherd Campaign consists of ensuring the formation of priests who have a burning desire for the Word of God and the Eucharist. It is thanks to pastors who are filled with this desire, and who are working alongside committed lay people, that we will experience an awakening in each of our parishes.

I ask you, dear faithful, to give generously to the Good Shepherd Campaign so we may continue to move forward in our efforts to experience an awakening in extent I am also conscious of God's presence.

I encourage each of you to join a faith sharing group because it is a way of moving from the head to the heart and to grow in intimacy with God. These encounters give us the opportunity to share the Bible to get to the heart of our encounter with Jesus. I find the Households of Faith initiative to be very appealing because it truly creates an environment that is conducive to our walk with God, united in community.

To experience an awakening is to become aware that God is among us. Through prayer, we will inevitably become more deeply aware of his presence. One awakening that I have experienced was in recognizing that God is present in our relationships with others. God is Trinitarian. He is relational. It is by entering into relationship with others that we enter into relationship with God. We do not all share the same experiences, but when I take the time to meet with others, I see God's presence in the other and hope they can see God's presence in me as well. By participating in sharing groups, I am able to see to what extent the other members are conscious of God's presence, and it is encouraging to see to what

We cannot fully experience an awakening on our own, We need each other in order to build a community and grow in our faith. We need someone to introduce us to Christ before we can experience this awakening.

The Lord has created each of us for a vocation, so let us celebrate each vocation, and in a particular way our priests who support us spiritually. Priests play an essential role in facilitating an awakening in us. They are responsible for the spiritual well-being of an entire parish or, in the case of priests in the country, many parishes. It is an enormous responsibility that requires our prayers and financial support for their formation.

We are all encouraged to give of our time, talent, and financial treasure to the Church, and to contribute to its development. The more you invest in your parish and support your pastor, the more you will benefit. We have felt closer to our community, and to God, by getting involved in our parish. We invite you to be generous and contribute to our Archdiocesan awakening according to your talents and means.

A Household of Faith is a small group of 6 to 10 people from a variety of backgrounds and life journeys who come together on a regular basis. The purpose of this time together is to get to know one another and grow in new friendships, while sharing the Holy Scriptures and some reflection using a simple process.
