

SUPPORT ORGANIZATIONS WEBSITES

Web Sites on Grief: http://www.webhealing.com http://www.fortnet.org/window.net http://goodgrief.org.au	a page where people can browse to understand and honor the many different paths to heal strong emotions
OTHER WEBSITES:
www.virtualhospice.ca	The Canadian Virtual Hospice is an interactive network for people dealing with life-threatening illness and loss.
www.mygrief.ca	Online support for people working through grief and loss or supporting someone who is grieving. It is free for Canadians and confidential. Unique in the world it allows people to learn about grief from the comfort of their own home, at anytime of the day or night, at their own pace
www.cancercare.mb.ca	Resources for patients and families, prevention and screening information, statistics, community cancer programs, volunteers and research information.
www.cnpcc.ca	Canadian Network for Palliative Care for Children site includes information on paediatric hospice palliative care in Canada.
www.recover-from-grief.com	A website run by a registered critical care nurse with forums, information and activities.
www.centreforloss.com	Centre for Loss publishes books, articles and other resources to help people who are grieving. We are also an educational and training centre for bereavement caregivers. If you are grieving or want to help others in grief, we invite you to explore our website.
www.growthhouse.org	Growth House Inc. provides this award-winning portal as your international gateway to resources for life-threatening illness and end-of-life care. Our primary mission is to improve the quality of compassionate care for people who are dying through public education and global professional collaboration. Our search engine gives you access to the Internet's most comprehensive collection of reviewed resources for end-of-life care.
www.hospicecare.com	International Association for Hospice & Palliative care.
http://caregiver.com/living-lessons.aspx	Living Lessons (registered) is a national initiative to increase awareness of hospice palliative care and end-of-life care services in Canada. The campaign is presented in partnership with the Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Association (CHPCA) and The GlaxoSmithKline Foundation. By encouraging and enabling open dialogue, information exchange and service provision we hope to enhance quality of life for individuals facing the last stages of life.

http://caregiver.com/living-lessons.aspx	Living Lessons (registered) is a national initiative to increase awareness of hospice palliative care and end-of-life care services in Canada. The campaign is presented in partnership with the Canadian Hospice Palliative care Association (CHPCA) and the GlaxcoSmithKline Foundation. By encouraging and enabling open dialogue, information exchange and service provision we hope to enhance quality of life for individuals facing the last stages of lif.
www.palliative.info	Palliative info strives to provide an organized collection of links to palliative care resources on the internet that are active and maintained, including some which were developed locally in Manitoba, Canada. (Dr. Mike Harlos’s site)
www.capo.ca/start-the-talk/	A resource by the Canadian Association of Psychosocial Oncology for health care zprofessionals and educators to support children and teens when a family member has cancer.