Monthly Prayer Intentions of Pope Leo XIV

For the prevention of suicide.

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

Pope Leo XIV releases his first Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexi te (“I have loved you”)

Thursday, October 9, 2025 - Pope Leo XIV released his first Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexi te (“I have loved you”), on the Church’s care for the poor. Drafted by Pope Francis before his death and now revised and issued by Pope Leo XIV, the Exhortation is in continuity with Pope Francis’ last encyclical, Dilexit nos (“He has loved us”), on the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Pope Leo emphasizes that “love for the Lord . . . is one with love for the poor” (n. 5). Divided into five chapters, the Exhortation outlines God’s identification with the poor (chapter 2), the centrality of the poor in the Church’s life (chapter 3), the development of the Church’s social doctrine over the past 150 years (chapter 4), and the challenge facing the Church today (chapter 5). In his accompanying letter addressed to the Bishops of the world, Pope Leo outlines his hope for this Apostolic Exhortation: “May Dilexi te help the Church to serve the poor and help bring the poor to Christ.”

The Apostolic Exhortation Dilexi te is now available on the Holy See’s website by clicking here

NEW* The Good Shepherd Campaign 2025 – For the Life of the Church!

This week, Archbishop LeGatt is launching the 2025 Good Shepherd Campaign, *For the Life of the Church!, a fundraising effort mainly for the formation of seminarians. Let us think of what our priests give in all aspects of parish life. They baptize our children, our grandchildren, administer the sacraments, accompany young people and adults in their spiritual growth, they proclaim and open the Word of God to lead us to praise and worship Him. They accompany us in our illnesses and sufferings and support us in mourning. All this to contribute to the life of the Church which is the Body of Christ.

We therefore invite you to open your minds to the breath of the Spirit, for a monetary donation, and to pray for seminarians and priests in the coming weeks.

Please note that the collection for the Good Shepherd Campaign will take place on the weekend of November 15 and 16.

We also invite you to the Campaign webpage (click here) where you can make an online donation. As well, please view the For the Life of the Church poster (click here) and read the bilingual brochure (click here) with a photo and a quote from seminarian Vincent Nguyen, as well as father Peter Tran, ordained to the priesthood on May 31st.

REMINDER* Diaconate Formation Update – Request for Prayers

We ask you to support the candidates for the permanent diaconate in their final year of formation with your prayers. -
Deacons Gilles Lorteau and Michael Thibert - Co-Directors of the Diaconate Formation Program

DAVID FOIDART

Parish: Blessed Sacrament Parish,
Archdiocese of St. Boniface
Ministry of Charity: Serving at L'ARCHE

Tanya Foidart

I was called by God to serve others both within the parish and in our greater communities, and following a year of discernment, my call to the permanent Diaconate was validated.

Guided by courses, prayer and a group of permanent deacons and their wives, we have been enriched and experienced tremendous spiritual growth and have gained a more in-depth and glorious look at our faith.

I take this Joy with me in my community outreach to enhance the lives of members of L'Arche, a group of six houses in our city that encourages the independent living of those challenged by physical and intellectual disabilities.

"I provide support to my husband with a listening ear and accompany him to the weekend session. I have enjoyed attending weekend sessions with David, the other candidates and their wives as well as with the Team." - Tanya

DANIEL BAHUAUD

Parish: Saints-Martyrs-Canadiens Parish,
Archdiocese of Saint Boniface
Ministry of Charity: Ministry to the
Separated and Divorced

I'd long felt a call over the years to serve the Church as a potential cleric, but it was while livestreaming the 2020 Easter Vigil at Holy Cross Parish during the COVID-19 pandemic that I clearly felt the Spirit calling me to the diaconate. Since then, the formation process has been one of continuous growth in God's grace and love for Jesus and the Church.

It is also challenging, as candidates must juggle online studies, in-person formation, ministry inside and outside the parish, and full-time work. The deepening and growth of my spiritual life has been a great help to me. The Lord is good!

My ministry of charity outside my parish is to accompany separated and divorced persons. Those who are experiencing a breakup in their relationships experience a great deal of pain and grief; they need a safe and sacred space where they can find their bearings, share their journey, pray, and find the soothing embrace of Christ.

There is a real need for this ministry, and over the last two and a half years, I've seen just how important it is to be present for them. To see the brokenhearted recover and rediscover themselves in joy is a tremendous blessing and a witness to God's gentle and infinite mercy.

"Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep." Rom 12:15

Marriage, Family and Life

NEW* Marriage Tips

Every couple experiences moments of distress, frustration, and difficulty. It requires a great deal of faith and fortitude to “put out into the deep”. What are the challenges that try your patience and perseverance as a couple? How is Christ asking you to ‘put out into the deep’ and trust in Him?

NEW* Tips for the Separated and Divorced

Become First Responders... God may be calling us to those suffering from our divorce-affirming culture. Tell them you're sorry and ask what is wrong. Listen, and most of all, be present. You don't have to solve their problems. You can tell them the truth without getting too involved in all their issues. Don't avoid saying what they may not hear anywhere else - that marriage vows matter, that they are permanent, that they are for our good, and that God will help us and give us the grace to heal relationships. Remind them that difficult times are baked into the wedding cake. Difficulties strengthen us, bring us to the Lord, point out our own weaknesses, help us understand sacrifice and suffering, and show us the path to holiness. Offer them hope! The important thing is that we offer our friends truly helpful support, the kind that encourages them in their marriage. Pray for these couples and remember what a first responder does: stops the bleeding, establishes a pulse, then moves people to get more extensive help to diagnose specific problems and begin treatment. – Catholic Answers

This night will be filled with praise and worship, Scripture and creative storytelling, and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Together, we'll explore what it means to be a witness of Christ through friendship, walking alongside others as Jesus does — accompanying, listening, and bringing light into the lives of those around us. The vigil will include moments of reflection, multilingual prayer, and a special blessing as a young person. As a sign of unity and mission, participants will also receive and exchange friendship bracelets as a reminder that we are sent forth to be friends and witnesses to one another in the world. Come, rest in His presence, and be renewed in the joy of your calling. All youth, young adults, and ministry leaders are welcome.

Stewardship

November 2, 2025 - All Soul's Day

"...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me...." JOHN 6:38

When stewards pray the "Our Father", say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage – "thy kingdom come, thy will be done." Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God's will. Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God's will for you.
