NEW* Video - Archbishop LeGatt: Back to School!

As we begin to feel an Autumn crisp in the air, the back-to-school season is upon us. This month, Archbishop LeGatt proposes a reflection on education, and focusing on the truly wonderful gifts we may receive through our studies. In a special way this month, let us pray for all students, young and old, in our diocese. That the Lord would bless their minds and allow them to be taught and formed. Let us also pray for all teachers and educational staff, especially in Manitoba's Catholic Schools, that the Lord would equally bless them with His grace, patience, and charity.

What if every child could have time and space specially set aside for an encounter with Christ? The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is a time-tested approach to faith formation. It feeds the deepest needs of children, allowing each one to get to know God personally. In a retreat-like atmosphere, through the use of special materials designed just for them, children hear the Word proclaimed and grow in their relationship with God. Marriage, Family & Life

NEW* Marriage Tips

Humor is often the best medicine. Learning to laugh and not taking ourselves too seriously can make life more enjoyable for us and our family.

NEW* Reflections for the Separated & Divorced

Remember, the Church is extremely sensitive to the sorrow of her members: just as she rejoices with those who rejoice, she weeps with those who weep (cf. Rom 12:15). We can all take great comfort in this, both separated and divorced Catholics as well as their family members, friends and fellow parishioners.

Keep in mind what Saint John Paul II clearly stressed: "Let these men and women know that the Church loves them, that she is not far from them and suffers because of their situation. The divorced and remarried are and remain her members, because they have received Baptism and retain their Christian faith." (Address to the Pontifical Council for the Family, 24 January 1997)

News from the CCCB

NEW* CCCB President Expresses Solidarity After Minneapolis Tragedy
Thursday, August 28, 2025

Today, the President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB), the Most Rev. William T. McGrattan, sent a letter to the Most Reverend Bernard A. Hebda, Archbishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, to express the profound closeness of the Church in Canada to the grieving students, families, teachers, and parishioners of Annunciation Parish and School, as well as to all the faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, following yesterday's tragic mass shooting, which claimed the lives of two children and injured many others.

It is especially heartbreaking that children, their pastor, and teachers were targeted as they gathered joyfully for the new school year for the celebration of the Eucharist. The faithful in Canada are asked to pray for the eternal repose of the two children who lost their lives, for the recovery of the injured, and for the comfort and healing for the entire community affected by this senseless act of violence.

In these painful moments, may Christ, who never abandons the suffering, bring peace and strength to all those affected by this tragedy.

So, what happens when you bring together two sides of a new family?

Stewardship

September 7, 2025 - 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.”
LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we in stewardship can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.
