Pope Leo XIV signs "Magnifica humanitas" (@Vatican Media)

Pope Leo XIV's First Encyclical Letter: Magnifica Humanitas

Pope Leo XIV's Encyclical Letter, Magnifica Humanitas, was released today. It focuses on safeguarding the human person in the time of artificial intelligence. The letter is dated 15 May, to commemorate the 135th anniversary of Pope Leo XIII's Encyclical Letter, Rerum Novarum.

The Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development offers the following synopsis of the Encyclical Letter: "Magnifica Humanitas offers insights into the protection of the human person in the age of artificial intelligence, recognizing a profound epochal shift. It places the dignity of the human person at the centre as the criteria for guiding technical progress. The Church's social teaching accompanies these transformations, pointing to the common good, solidarity and subsidiarity as the fundamental benchmarks for understanding and interpreting the transformation currently underway. It proposes, as an alternative to the culture of power and war, a civilization of love founded on justice, dialogue and shared responsibility."

*REMINDER* Archbishop LeGatt Video – On AI and Technology in Our Lives

In this month's message, Archbishop Albert invites the faithful of the Archdiocese of Saint-Boniface to reflect thoughtfully on the growing presence of artificial intelligence and omnipresence of technology in our daily lives. When used appropriately, these tools may certainly confer benefits; however, their unbridled use carries substantial risks to our very humanity. He reminds us that their use calls for careful judgment and spiritual discernment, lest convenience lead us into intellectual or spiritual complacency.

Created in God's image, we are entrusted with the gifts of reason, creativity, and moral responsibility. These are not meant to be outsourced, but exercised and strengthened. As we engage with new technologies, Archbishop Albert encourages us to remain attentive stewards of our minds and hearts, ensuring that our choices continue to reflect the dignity and purpose given to us by God.

A Spirit-filled and warm “Thank You!” to Fr. Hayden Williams...

Some 200 people attended the CCRS Pentecost Conference with Fr. Hayden Williams, ofm cap., on May 22 & 23 at the Saints-Martyrs-Canadiens Parish Hall. The well-known capuchin from Malta gave three inspiring and Scripture-filled talks on how the Holy Spirit can move us in our daily lives as Christians, and how God moves us forward to greater compassion and giving of ourselves to others as we dare, in the Spirit, to step out of our comfort zones... at home in our families, in our parishes and in our respective lay ministries.

Participants were lifted up by the Praise & Worship music led by the "ABLAZE" charismatic Music Ministry, as well as a healing Mass followed by a powerful time Eucharistic Adoration. God is good, all the time!

*NEW* Reflections for the Separated & Divorced

“The effect of righteousness will be peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trust forever.” – Isaiah 32:17

Do you look for opportunities to tell off your ex-spouse? Do you think of ways to get back at him or her? This is a natural response to being hurt. But what would actually happen if you followed through? A great way to handle this temptation is to see yourself as the elderly “you” you will become. Would the older, wiser “you” regret these angry actions? Instead of reacting, think of whether or not you will look back and regret taking that action.

- A Road to Healing, Lisa Duffy

Stewardship

---

May 31, 2026 – The Most Holy Trinity

“The Lord, the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.” Exodus 34:6

Stewardship is a response to the goodness of God. We give out of gratitude to a gracious God, not out of fear that God will be vengeful.
