Monthly Prayer Intention of Pope Leo XIV for November

For the proper use of wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

Archdiocesan News

NEW* The Good Shepherd Campaign 2026 – For the Life of the Church!

This week, Archbishop LeGatt is launching the 2026 Good Shepherd Campaign, *For the Life of the Church!, to support the formation of our seminarians, the costs of bringing in international priests, and many pastoral initiatives that ensure the life of the Church in our parishes.

Our goal is $400,000. We invite you to visit the archdiocesan website for testimonies and information.

Please note that the collection for the Good Shepherd Campaign will take place on the weekend of November 14 and 15.

Let us think of what our priests give in all aspects of parish life. They baptize our children, our grandchildren, administer the sacraments, accompany young people and adults in their spiritual growth, they proclaim and open the Word of God to lead us to praise and worship Him. They accompany us in our illnesses and sufferings and support us in mourning. All this to contribute to the life of the Church which is the Body of Christ.

We therefore invite you to open your minds to the breath of the Spirit, for a monetary donation, and to pray for seminarians and priests in the coming weeks.

We also invite you to the Campaign webpage (click here) where you can make an online donation. As well, please view the For the Life of the Church poster (click here) and read the brochure (click here) with a quote from seminarian Joseph-Martin Pham, as well as a photo of father Peter Tran, and father Lionel Thibault.

We ask that you continue to pray for new vocations, for our seminarians, and for our clergy.

NEW* Stay Connected with the Ave Maria Grotto!

Follow our social media channels to stay up to date on pilgrimage news, upcoming events, volunteer opportunities, photos, and special announcements from the Ave Maria Grotto throughout the year.

Whether you are a long-time pilgrim or planning your first visit, our social media pages are the best way to stay informed and connected.

Catholic Education

NEW* Graduate Diploma in Catholic Studies (Winter 2027), three courses offered

Topics in Catholic Studies CATH 8500: From Galileo to AI: Catholicism and Science

Thursday 6:00 p.m. – 8:50 p.m. (starting January 7, 2027)

Dr. Heejung Cho

Online and Synchronous (Zoom)

What happens when scientific discovery challenges how we understand God, the world, and ourselves?

From Galileo's universe to Darwin's evolution and today's artificial intelligence, this course explores how Catholic faith engages with a changing world. Drawing on Teilhard de Chardin, Bernard Lonergan, and Catholic teaching, including Magnifica Humanitas, students will consider questions of creation, human dignity, and Christian hope. Together, we will ask what makes us human and explore how faith and science can shape a Christian vision of our shared future.

Benefits of the Graduate Diploma in CATHOLIC STUDIES

01	Taught online synchronously by faculty at Assumption	02	Considered a hiring asset by eight Catholic school boards
03	Has a pathway toward an M.A., M.Div or M.T.S. degree	04	Class times are scheduled with the working professional in mind
05	Tuition fees are competitive and there are no ancillary fees	06	No international fees (one flat rate for everyone)
07	Small class size	08	Has an auditing option available at a significantly reduced tuition rate
09	Is flexible , allowing students to complete one course or the diploma	10	Application process is easy and completed entirely online (no fee)

Directed Readings in Catholic Studies CATH 8800

This course will allow students to study a specific topic not covered in detail by a course currently offered in the program.

The students will select a topic and readings in consultation with an instructor.

It is required that students have weekly content and complete a final project at the conclusion of the course.

Typically, students will be permitted to complete this course once and only with permission from the Graduate Chair.

Major Paper in Catholic Studies CATH 9000

This course will provide students with an opportunity to undertake an independent research project on any topic related to Catholic studies with the goal of writing a major paper that perhaps could be submitted to a refereed journal or edited book.

In the course, students will submit a formal proposal that includes research questions, literature review, methods, and a preliminary bibliography.

After writing the paper, students will be required to present their paper at an oral presentation.

Admission is with permission of the Graduate Chair.

Five Scholarships for Winter 2027

The Dan Andreae Scholarships – 3 scholarships $800/each

The Monsignor Wnuk Scholarship – $800

The Polonia Centre Windsor Scholarship – $800

Conferences and Retreats

REMINDER* "I Will Give You Rest:" A Women's Advent Retreat – November 28, 2026

Jesus says "Come to me all who are weary and heavy burdened and I will give you rest." Our current culture glorifies productivity above rest. The world wages war against our peace of mind, our wellness of body, and our contentment of heart. But Jesus is our rest. Let's take time to orient ourselves towards this truth during the Advent season with singer/songwriter and music therapist Danielle Savard and author Hannah Chartier.

Location: St. Timothy's Parish, Winnipeg MB

Date: Saturday November 28th, 2026

Time: Registration begins at 9 AM, retreat begins at 9:30 AM, concluding with the option to attend Saturday Mass at 4 PM.

Open to all women ages 15+ (under 18 must be accompanied by a chaperone or guardian)

Babies in arms welcome ♥

Cost: $50 per person + $12.50 for catered lunch (optional).

REMINDER* Salt + Light Video Series “Do You Pray the Rosary?”

Salt + Light Media recently turned its cameras on Catholics working at our Diocesan Pastoral Centre. Visit the diocesan Facebook page at:

<https://www.facebook.com/ArchSaintBoniface/> to view the videos... And keep your eyes peeled for more interviews!

We asked Koreen Hrizai from the Archidiocèse de Saint-Boniface Archdiocese how she fits the rosary into her day, and her answer surprised us!

For Koreen, she finds time throughout her day. Sometimes that's the very end of the night, as a way to close things out.

Koreen also reminds us that we never pray the rosary alone. Even if you're the only one hearing the words, someone else in the world is probably praying it right then, too!

Dominique Gougeon-Gagnon serves as Pastoral Services Event Coordinator for the Archidiocèse de Saint-Boniface Archdiocese. She admits that her relationships with the Rosary has ebbed and flowed over the years.

From praying it daily, to struggling to find focus, she is aware that it's something she wishes she was more consistent in. She finds hope in the fact that the Hail Mary prayer is one that always helps her feel closest to God, and praying it throughout her day can be enormously helpful!

When we asked James Kautz, Director of Pastoral Services for the Archidiocèse de Saint-Boniface Archdiocese if he prays the rosary, his answer was so honest. For his family, the rosary is part of their bedtime routine, ideally to help his kids wind down, but in a big family, sometimes arguments over whose turn it is to recite the Hail Holy Queen prayer can break out!

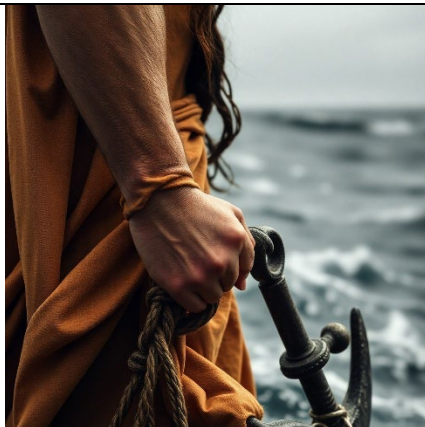

But they keep showing up because it's building a habit of faith in their kids.

Marriage, Family and Life

NEW* Marriage Tips

Gratefulness at the end of each day fosters genuine happiness. Make a list with family members of what you are thankful for today.

NEW* Reflections for the Separated & Divorced

Everyone needs a support system as they pursue their endeavours, and in healing from divorce and doing the hard work of building a new life, this is a very important aspect to consider. It is important to have friends who support your efforts to grow and are willing to assist you, if necessary.

Surround yourself with people who support and understand you, and who will pray for you and with you. Talk to your priest or deacon. You will make much better progress and find fewer distractions to hold you back.

REMINDER* Knights of Columbus launches Into the Breach: The Dignity of Work video series in English and French

The series explores the Catholic vision of man's mission in the world, and how work is a key part of it

The Knights of Columbus fraternity announces the bilingual launch of Into the Breach: The Dignity of Work, a five-part video series on man's God-given mission and how work plays a role in sanctification. The episodes, now available in French, explore the nature of work, how it plays a part in family life, spiritual life, and the world at large. This series follows the success of two previous series, entitled Into the Breach and Into the Breach: The Mission of the Family.

"This series comes at the perfect time," says Deputy Supreme Knight Arthur Peters. "In an age where many men are searching for meaning, we want to help them rediscover their purpose."

The English series has already been viewed more than four million times. Every episode highlights a different theme surrounding work's purpose in the lives of men, includes expert interviews from renowned Catholic personalities, and personal testimonies. The episodes are God's Mission for Man; Work and Holiness; Work Life and Family Life; Work and the World; and Putting Work in Its Place.

Viewers can also access a companion study guide, and a free prayer card to St. Joseph the Worker. To view the full video series for Into the Breach: The Dignity of Work, the trailer, and to access the prayer card and study guide, visit www.kofc.org/intothebreach.

NEW* New Document from the Dicastery for the Doctrine of Faith: Venite ad me

Thursday, October 22 2026 - The Holy See's Dicastery for the Doctrine of Faith has published today, on the Memorial of Saint John Paul II, a new document titled "Venite ad me: Considerations on the Transmission of the Faith in an Epochal Change."

Pope Leo XIV, during an audience granted to His Eminence Victor Manuel Cardinal Fernández, Prefect of the Dicastery for the Doctrine of Faith on 21 August 2026, approved this document, which had been adopted during the Ordinary Session of the said Dicastery on 24 June 2026.

"These Considerations are intended, above all, to take up anew, for the whole ecclesial community, the invitation that the Holy Father Leo XIV extended to the Italian bishops when he met with them in June 2025: 'First of all, there is a need for renewed zeal in the proclamation and transmission of faith. It is a question of placing Jesus Christ at the center of our proclamation and of our existence and, following the path indicated by Evangelii Gaudium, helping people to live out a personal relationship with him, to discover the joy of the Gospel. In a time of great fragmentation, it is necessary to return to the foundation of our faith, to the kerygma.

This is the first major commitment that motivates all the others.' Therefore, as the Holy Father further observes, "today, evangelization must, in particular, also grapple with the changed conditions and dynamics surrounding the transmission of the faith from one generation to the next. In some parts of the world, this transmission has all but ceased, and this requires the ability to take on new challenges.'" (Excerpt from Venite ad me, n. 4).

The specific aim of this document, therefore, is to offer a focused reflection and to propose concrete ways of proclaiming the kerygma amid the epochal change through which we are living.

To accompany the document, you will find below a collection of resources on the topic of evangelization prepared by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops:
